FUTURE COP AND FUTURE PUP – 2050 VERSION

Name:

Date:

You've had a glimpse of uniforms from the past – design one for the future. What will police officers wear in 2050?

What equipment will they carry? How will they carry it? If you have space in the area below, design the mode of transport they will use then too. What will their canine companions be equipped with too?
